

LAUNDRY GETS STABLE PERMIT

Committee Recommends Ordinance, Despite Large Opposing Delegation.

TO AMEND BUILDING CODE

Wendenburg Raises Technical Point as to Inspector's Authority.

After extended debate the Council Committee on Ordinances last night recommended to the Council for adoption an ordinance allowing the T. and E. Laundry to erect and maintain a two-story brick stable in the rear portion of its lot on the south side of Marshall Street, between Gilmer and Hancock Streets. A large delegation of neighboring property owners and residents came down to oppose the ordinance, but it appeared that the opposition was more to the laundry than to the stable. Several members of the committee seemed to think that the section was one that was rapidly changing from a residential to a business locality. Mr. Haddon had made some investigation and come to the conclusion that small private stables for one or two horses, carefully kept and in filthy condition, were more of a common nuisance and breeding place for flies than such a large public stable as is proposed, where a competent manager would be constantly in charge and the stables thoroughly cleaned daily. After hearing from many people in the vicinity the ordinance was recommended by a vote of 5 to 3, as follows: Ayes—Messrs. Gilmer, Haddon, Vanderleir and Welsh; Nays—Messrs. Melton, Paul and Jones.

Will Amend Building Code.
City Attorney Pollard laid before the committee certain proposed amendments to the Building Code, having nothing to do with the structural requirements, but with the manner of legal enforcement of the code requirements.

L. O. Wendenburg, counsel for the Hablison estate, owners of the buildings at Ninth and Broad Streets, declared to be unsafe by both the Building Inspector and the City Engineer, has raised technical questions as to the authority of the Building Inspector to pass on repair plans. He held that no structural alterations were contemplated under the wording of the present code. Mr. Pollard said that it was a monstrous absurdity to hold that a man must build a permit to build a dog kennel, but could spend thousands of dollars in repairs, so long as there were no structural changes, without any permit or supervision. The ordinance proposed the defense of the building, and the committee unanimously recommended for adoption.

Must Signal at Crossings.
The petition of Hugh S. Lynch to be allowed permission to construct portable steel garages in the district was tabled for further inquiry. The Puller ordinance, requiring the keepers of all public garages where the entrance crosses a city sidewalk, to signal the passage of every car and of pedestrians using the sidewalk, was recommended for adoption.

The ordinance conferring police powers on the matron of the Police Detention went to the City Attorney for an opinion on its legality. Mr. Haddon contending that policemen are State officers, and that the State Constitution makes no provision for women police officers. The ordinance requiring muzzling of all dogs during the summer months, and that amending the electrical code, were tabled to hear from their patrons.
